1. Introduction

Welcome to the family history of William "Bill" Forster and Elizabeth "Betty" (Hulse) Forster. With luck, research, luck, perseverance, and more luck, ancestors have been traced along family lines as far back as the mid-12th century England.

This family history includes family members who were emigrants from Europe to America, fought in America's wars, graduated from many colleges, and were beloved parents, uncles, aunts, and friends.

1.1 Timelines

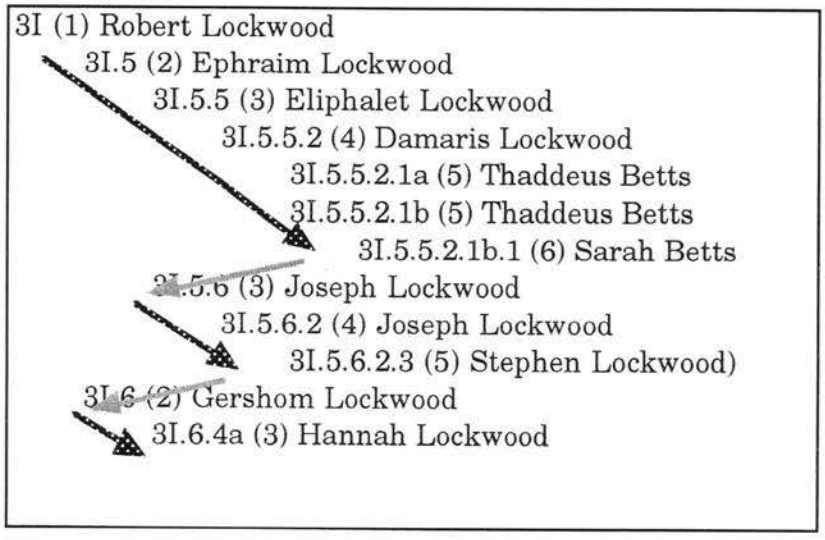
Timelines depict each lineage. Figure 1-1 shows an overall timeline for the entire family history. For legibility, Figure 1-1 foreshortens the longer timelines of the Peck and Mathews lineages. These timelines are presented in more detail in chapter 5.

Two terms appear in the timelines, as follows:

to America	Indicates when this family is known to have emigrated to the Western Hemisphere
US soldier	Indicates that a family member was in the military

1.2 Presentation Order

In each chapter (except chapter 5), the descendants for one ancestor are presented, then the descendants for that ancestors sibling, and so on. Graphically, it looks like this:



3I (1) Robert Lockwood
3I.5 (2) Ephraim Lockwood
3I.5.5 (3) Eliphalet Lockwood
3I.5.5.2 (4) Damaris Lockwood
3I.5.5.2.1a (5) Thaddeus Betts
3I.5.5.2.1b (5) Thaddeus Betts
3I.5.5.2.1b.1 (6) Sarah Betts
3I.5.6 (3) Joseph Lockwood
3I.5.6.2 (4) Joseph Lockwood
3I.5.6.2.3 (5) Stephen Lockwood)
3I.6 (2) Gershom Lockwood
3I.6.4a (3) Hannah Lockwood

1.3 Terms

Here are a few terms to aid in understanding the family history information:

For chapters 2, 3, and 4, the identifier for each descendant indicates which child he or she was in his parents' family. "a", "b," and so on indicate the first, second, and so on marriage for that person. For example, 3C.4b.5 (3) Nathan Peck was the fifth child of the second marriage of the fourth child of 3C (1) Joseph Peck.

For chapter 5, which usually has only 1 descendant per generation but many generations, the identifier indicates only the number of generation from the first ancestor.

For all chapters 2, 3, 4, and 5, the number in parentheses, e.g. (10), indicates the generation from the first one in that section.

An "e" appearing with a date (e.g., e 1679) indicates that the date is estimated, usually from the birthdate of a descendant.

A "c" appearing with a date (e.g., c 1679) indicates that the date is approximate (circa), based on some other known events. For example, one ancestor arrived in America in 1685, married a spouse from a family that arrived separately, and had his first child in 1687. Thus, that ancestor must have married in late 1685, 1686, or early 1687. The date shown would be "c 1686".

"(unknown)" in an ancestor's name indicates that the given, family, or entire name for that ancestor is unknown at this time.

[Reference name] in brackets refers to a document or other reference, listed in chapter 7.

2. William "Bill" and Elizabeth "Betty" (Hulse) Forster

Bill Forster and Betty Hulse were born early in the 20th century. Both were born on the North American prairies, Bill in Colorado just east of the Rocky Mountains, and Betty in Kansas. By the late 1920s, both of their families had moved to Los Angeles.

They were children during the First World War, teenagers during the Roaring Twenties, young adults and parents during the Great Depression, and still parents during the Second World War through the Sixties.

They were fine parents and grandparents to three children and ten grandchildren (including a few stepgrandchildren).

2A (1) William Lockwood FORSTER 1910 - 1977

Birth Date: 10 Feb 1910. Birth Place: Colorado Springs, El Paso County, CO. Death Date: 5 December 1977. Death Place: Los Angeles CA. Burial Date: 8 Dec 1977. Burial Place: Forest Lawn, Glendale, CA.

Bill always celebrated his birthday as 15 February, as shown on his birth certificate. But, the birth certificate was not recorded until March 31, weeks later, which apparently resulted in confusion about the actual birth date. His aunt Anna and her husband Charles Parsons wrote a letter to William, welcoming him into the world. This letter was written on February 11 and postmarked February 13. This indicates that Bill was actually born on 10 February or perhaps even earlier. [Parsons1910a]

Bill's mother died only 2 months after Bill was born.

Bill delivered his second daughter, Betsy, at home. The doctor was unable to arrive at Bill and Betty's home in time, due to traffic around the USC-UCLA game that day.

Bill was willing to enlist for the Second World War. But, he worked for the Union Oil Company. Oil was as important to the war effort as were soldiers. The company insisted on a deferment for Bill.

Bill was generous with his son, Mike. He took Mike to Disneyland every year, starting in 1955 when the amusement park opened. Some of Mike's happiest childhood memories are from visits to Disneyland with his parents and an occasional friend. Bill also gave Michael his first car when he was 17.

Bill's Hollywood High School yearbook lists USC underneath his senior picture. Perhaps Mike fulfilled a dream for Bill when Mike graduated from USC.

Bill's gravestone reads, "Devoted Husband and Father."

Birth Date: 12 Aug 1912. Birth Place: Manhattan, Riley, KS. Death Date: 25 Jan 1991. Death Place: Los Angeles, Los Angeles, CA. Burial Place: Forest Lawn, Glendale, Los Angeles, CA.
Parents: Frederick Raymond HULSE (1868-1958) & Carrie Grace JOHNSON (1876-1930).
Marriage Date: 24 Oct 1930. Marriage Place: Yuma AZ.

Betty was preparing to go to college at Kansas State Agricultural College in her home town of Manhattan, but circumstances forced the family to move to California.

Betty (Elizabeth) and Bill (William) were introduced to each other by Elizabeth's sister Hazel, as "future wife and husband".

Betty's health had problems starting during the 1940s. When she discovered she was pregnant in 1950, her doctors advised her to have an abortion. (A legal abortion was a rare event in 1950.) But, she decided that it was right for her to have the child, fortunately for son Mike.

Despite her poor health, she loved her youngest, always taking care of him. When Mike was 14 and she was 51, she insisted on test riding his new bike, when he was still recoving from a knee broken the year before. A part on the bike was loose, and she ended up breaking her hip.

Despite her health problems, she lived to the age of 78.

Research: Walker1861a,1

Spouse: "Widow" WALKER 1610 - 1660

Birth Date: e 1610. Death Date: e 1660.

The given and maiden names of "Widow" Walker, and her late husband's given name, are unknown. References to such a woman in records and by James, Sarah, and Philip establish that she did exist.

She was one of the first purchasers and settlers of the town of Rehoboth, New England (later Seacunk, or Seekonk). She was the only female to sign the "combination", or contract, that all Seakunk inhabitants entered into. The 1643 list of those who gave the value of their estates shows hers as £50. She had a share in the division made 31 Jun 1644. Lots were assigned to her in several divisions afterward, as drawings for the Great Plain and the New Meadow show.

Then, her name disappears. Speculation is that she emigrated to the new world with her younger son, Philip, after her older children, James and Sarah, had already arrived.

The children of this union were: James, Sarah, and Philip.

3B.3 (2) Philip WALKER 1630 - 1679

Birth Date: e 1630. Death Date: 1679. Burial Date: 21 Aug 1679.

Philip was the son of "Widow" Walker, and the brother of James Walker of Taunton. The earliest record of Philip is a deed with his signature, dated 1653 at Rehoboth. He was one of a Grand Jury on 17 May 1655, propounded for freedom 8 Jun 1655, and took the oath of fidelity 1 Jun 1658. In May and June of 1658, his name appears in the divisions of lands around Rehoboth.

Philip's home and farm were on an attractive and fertile location overlooking the Providence River, on Watchemoket Neck, south of the Great Plain, on the road from Providence RI to Barrington.

Philip was a weaver in 1659. He was a surveyor, constable, on the Grand Inquest, one of the Select Men, and deputy to Plymouth. He was a Deacon of the church.

Philip generously donated to the fund to fight the war against Native Americans led by Metacomet in 1675 and 1676. Rehoboth was a small (population about 75) isolated plantation, especially exposed to the attacks of Native Americans bent on destroying all the colonists in New England.

Two of Philip's children died young. The first Elizabeth, the twin of his son Philip, drowned at age 2 1/2 on her way to school. Michael also drowned, at nearly age 10, by falling through the floor in the saw mill, near the water wheel, and was carried away under the ice.

Philip became one of the wealthiest men of Rehoboth. His estate was appraised at the value of £681 in Oct 1679.

Jane was either the daughter of ? Butterworth of Rehoboth, or of Michale Metcalf of Dedham. Jane married 2nd John Polley of Roxbury, on 2 Jun 1684.

Birth Date: Mar 1661. Birth Place: Rehoboth MA. Death Date: 17 Feb 1739. Death Place: Rehoboth MA.

Historical notes about individuals of Rehoboth, Plymouth Colony, are collected in [Bowen1981a]. One example regarding one Philip Walker is as follows, "1 December 1712 - Philip Walker takes up and enters a stray dark brown horse, 'neither ear markt nor Branded'."

The inventory of Philip's estate totaled £1750. Philip's epitaph on his gravestone in Seekonk Cemetary reads, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

3C (1) Joseph PECK 1587 - 1640

Birth Date: 1587. Christen Date: 30 Apr 1587. Christen Place: Beccles, Suffolk, England. Death Date: e 1640. Death Place: Rehoboth MA.

Joseph belonged to that class in England known as gentlemen. These were the gentry entitled to coat-armor and other privileges, and ranked next to Baronets.

In 1638, Joseph and other Puritans, and with his brother Robert, their pastor, fled from the persecutions of the Church of England to the New World. They sailed in the ship Diligent of Ipswich, with John Martin as the master.

Daniel Cushing, town clerk at Higham, New England, wrote, "Mr. Joseph Peck and his wife with three sons and daughter and two men servants, and three maid servants, came from Old Hingham, and settled in New Hingham."

Upon his arrival at Hingham, Joseph received a grant of seven acres for a house lot next to that of his brother Robert, and other grants of land. While at Hingham, he was a Representative, or deputy to the General Court from 1639 to 1642. He was also one of the selectmen, justice of the peace, assessor, and held other positions.

In 1641, Joseph became one of the pricipal purchasers of Rehoboth, as was "Widow" Walker. He moved there in 1645. During the trip, Joseph and three others sheltered themselves in a Native American wigwam. The wigwam took fire, burning three horses to death, and destroying all of their goods, to the value of £50.

Joseph had five children in England by his first wife, and three in New England by his second wife. His first wife Rebecca and his daughter Anna died at about in England, leaving his second wife and the four children of his first marriage to accompany John to the New World.

He became a freeman of the town in 1658, and received his portion of the meadows on the north side of town. He was chosen a townsman in 1680, and a representative to the General Court of Massachusetts in 1700.

The records of Rehoboth and his will indicate that John married three times. One record shows, "Elizabeth his wife was burried (sic) December 9, 1667." Another shows, "Elizabeth his wife was burried (sic) April 21, 1687." His will charges his son and executor Nathan, "... to take care, maintain & provide for my wife Rebecca Peck, in sickness and in health, for and during her natural life, with honorable full maintainance."

John fathered 10 children over 25 years, from Elizabeth in 1657 to Abigail in 1682. Three of the children from his first wife Elizabeth died as infants, those being Elizabeth who died less than 1 month old, Anne who died at 4 months, and John who died at 2 years and 2 months. Thus, Nathan from his second wife Elizabeth was his only surviving son.

Birth Date: 1577. Birth Place: Rolvenden, Kent, England. Christen Date: 9 Feb 1577. Christen Place: Rolvenden, Kent, England. Death Date: 1625. Death Place: London, England.

In 1605, Robert became a freeman of Canterbury. His admission record describes him as Robert Couchman, "grosser." He is referred to as a woolcomber in the record of his second marriage.

In 1609, Robert was among a group of "Separatists" or "Dissenters" who fled from the north of England to Holland, to escape the persecutions by the Church and the Crown. After a few years of residing at Leyden, these Pilgrims realized that they would lose their identity among the Dutch. So, they resolved to establish a colony in the New World.

Robert Cushman and John Carver returned to England to negotiate with the Merchant Adventurers in London. Robert was the principal agent of the Pilgrims. He obtained the necessary patent, as well as permission from King James to enjoy liberty of conscience in the New World. Robert's organizational abilities and perseverance made the Pilgrims' success possible.

While not among the 102 Pilgrims aboard the Mayflower in 1620, Robert joined the Plymouth Colony in 1621, arriving aboard the Fortune. He soon returned to London to report the state of affairs of the colony to the Merchant Adventures. The Fortune also carried a cargo of lumber, beaver and other skins, and sassafras to sell for the colony. During the voyage, a French vessel robbed the Fortune of its cargo, and then allowed it to proceed to England. Robert planned to return permanently to Plymouth, but died in London in 1625.

Birth Date: 16 Mar 1771. Birth Place: Rutland VT. Death Date: 27 Feb 1852. Death Place: Pulaski MI. Burial Place: Concord MI.

Ethiel was 5 at the time the Declaration of Independence was signed. He was not quite 12 when his father died in the Army in 1783.

The Rutland farm was the Cushman family home for 60 years. Twenty-one children were born on the farm – Ethiel and three of his siblings; Ethiel's ten; and seven of Ethiel's son Joseph's.

In the spring of 1831, Ethiel, his son Joseph, and their families left the Vermont farm. They joined the families of Ethiel's married daughters in Wyoming County NY. They settled on a farm in Covington Township, near the village of Wyoming. (In 1821, Middlebury became Wyoming.)

In 1844, Ethiel and Joseph migrated again, this time to Jackson County MI. They arrived before spring had fairly started, on 16 March. At this time, Ethiel was 73, his wife Anna was 72. They settled on a farm of 160 acres in Pulaski Township, about two miles south of Concord. A small lake bordering the south shore is still known as Cushman Lake.

Anna and Ethiel died in 1848 and 1852, at 76 and 81 years of age. They are both buried in the cemetary south of Concord MI.

In Feb 1816, Ethiel bought a family Bible for $12. In it, he recorded births, deaths, and marriages. He carried this Bible from Vermont through New York to Michigan. When this Bible was passed to William Mitchell Cushman, the grandson of Herbert Wright Cushman, it had been possessed by seven generations, each the eldest surviving son.

Family tradition holds that Ethiel was kindly, a hard worker, and an earnest student of the Bible. Charles Walker Cushman, a grandson of Ethiel and Anna, commented In 1897, "It is the testimony of the recorder of this bit of history, who lived under the same roof with [Ethiel and Anna] from the time of his birth to the time of their death, that during my life I have never seen more devotion and consistent Christian living than was manifest in their lives."

As of 1944, descendants of Ethiel Cushman had spread to 24 states, the District of Columbia, and British Columbia. The known descendants through the seven generations following Ethiel number at least 355. At least 30 members of the family, including one Wave, served in the armed forces of the US or Canada during the Second World War.

Ethiel Cushman and Sarah (Delano) Roosevelt were third cousins, because they shared one great-great-grandfather. Therefore, Ethiel's children and President Franklin Roosevelt were fourth cousins.

3I (1) Robert LOCKWOOD 1610 - 1658

Birth Date: e 1610. Death Date: 1658. Death Place: Fairfield CT.

Lockwood is an ancient name. It is mentioned in the Domesday Book, the census of the English kingdom commissioned by William the Conqueror in 1085. Towns named Lockwood appear in Staffordshire and Yorkshire, England.

Robert emigrated from parish Combs, Suffolk, England about 1630, in Governor Winthrop's fleet. He arrived first at Cambridge MA, and settled in Watertown MA. The first six of his ten children were born in Watertown.

Robert was made a freeman of Watertown 9 Mar 1636-37. He moved to Fairfield CT in about 1646, where he became a freeman of Connecticut 20 May 1652. He became a Sergeant of Fairfield in May 1657.

On 11 Sep 1658, Robert's estate was valued at £467 3s. This included household goods such as three beds and bedding, three tablecloths, wooden ware, brass, pewter, dishes, tools, spinning wheels, four oxen, eleven cous (sic), 10 "three year old" and 4 "two year old" (?), three calves, horses and mares, sheep, swine, housing and lands, and corn and hay.

Robert died without a will. Susannah became the admistratrix of his estate, and received a one-third portion. Nine of the ten children split the rest, with the already-married Deborah "hath received her portion of her father before his death." The eldest son Johanthan received a double portion, reduced by the £57 12s of goods that he had received before his father's death. Each of the other children divided the rest of the estate, but each son received a third part more than each of the daughters. The sons received their portions at age 21, the daughters at 18 or at marriage, if sooner. (Altogether, this sounds like a word problem popular in beginning algebra classes.)

A final note – eleven Lockwoods had been graduates of Yale by 1834.

[See Holden1889a,xxi to start research into Robert's ancestors in England.]

Research: Banks1957a Holden1889a,1

Spouse: Susannah (unknown) 1615 - 1660

Birth Date: c 1615. Death Date: 23 Dec 1660. Death Place: Grinwich.

Susannah (or Susan) testified in a witch case at a court in New Haven on 13 May 1654. She stated that she was present when goodwife Knapp was hanged for a witch.

After Robert's death, Susannah married Jeffrey Ferris. She was married to him only a short time, because she died only two years after Robert's death. Robert and Susannah's first son Jonathan had (previously?) married Mary (or Marah) Ferris, the daughter of Jeffrey.

The children of this union were: Jonathan, Deborah, Joseph, Daniel, Ephraim, Gershom, John, Abigail, Sarah, and Mary.

3I.5 (2) Ephraim LOCKWOOD 1641 - 1690

Birth Date: 1 Dec 1641. Birth Place: Watertown MA. Death Date: c 1690.

Ephraim moved to Connecticut in his youth with his father, and resided in Norwalk. He was made a Freeman in Oct 1667, and was "on the list" (?) on 13 Oct 1669.

On 30 Dec 1664, Ephraim bought the homestead of Jonathan Marsh. The description of the transation reads, 'For and in consideration of one mare and suckling colt ... his howse with the shefes, dress-boards, etc. " The purchase included the yards, hovels, and ten fruit trees growing in the orchard, and the home-lot of more-or-less one acre. [Holden1889a,15]

In 1673, Ephraim's estate was worth £70, and in 1687, £120.

Eprhaim and Mercy had 10 children between 1665 and about 1688.

Birth Date: 27 Feb 1675. Birth Place: Norwalk CT. Death Date: 14 Oct 1753. Death Place: Norwalk Ct. Burial Place: Norwalk CT.

Eliphalet was a Deacon. He represented Norwalk to the General Assembly in May 1724.

Eliphalet and Mary had 10 children between 1700 and 1716. Of these, at least four died young - the first Hannah nearly age 12, the unnamed son at less than one month, Mercy at age 3, and the second Hannah at 15 months. (For a few days in July 1712, the Lockwoods had two daughters named Hannah.)

Eliphalet's will divided his house and lands and some of his movable estate mostly among wife and his elder surviving son Eliphalet, with a smaller portion for his younger surviving son Peter. The will divided the rest of his movable estate equally among his three surviving daughters, Damaris, Mary, and Abigail, plus five pounds each for Damaris and Mary. His estate included many parcels of land, in sizes of ten to twenty acres, including his home lot and other parcels known as or near Pye Swamps, the West Rocks, Horse Swamps, Salt Meadow, Indian Field, Stickey Plains, Rattle Snake Pasture, and both east and west of Betts Pond near the plains.

John's father John was admitted a planter in Guilford Ct in 1673. Soon after, he moved to Norwalk. [Holden1889a,86]

John Sr. may have been the son of one Thomas Betts. Thomas was born in England in 1618, came to New England as early as 1639, and was one of the founders of Guilford CT. Thomas died in Norwalk CT in 1688. However, the reference shows Thomas' son John born 20 Jun 1650, and dying c 1730. [MacKenzie1917a]

3I.6.4a.1 (4) Hannah BURWELL 1687 - 1751

Birth Date: 30 Mar 1687. Birth Place: Greenwich CT. Death Date: 17 Nov 1751.

In March, 1888, a tombstone was found during excavation for a saloon in Greenpoint, in an area that was never known to be a cemetary. The inscription on the gravestone reads, "Here lies the body of Mrs. Hannah Beets, late wife of John Betts Elgc. dec'd, who was the only daughter and heir of Mr. John Burwall dec'd. She was born March 30th 1687 and departed this life November ye 17, 1751 in the 65 year of her age."

When Hannah's father died with her so young, wrongful owners took over the estate in England. Since Hannah's death, efforts were made by the American heirs to recover their lost estate, with no progress. The finding of the tombstone might have helped this situation. (As of the writing of [Holden1889a], the issue was as yet unresolved.)

The relationships among the various Thomas's and John's Betts of Guilford and Norwalk CT between 1650 and 1730 is as yet confusing.

3J (1) Matthias SENTION 1620 - 1669

Birth Date: c 1620. Death Date: 1669.

The family name has various spellings - St. John, Sension, and Sention.

Matthias was born in England, came to Dorchester MA in 1631-32. He was made a freeman in Dorchester on 3 Sep 1634. On 14 Jan 1635, he received a grant of 20 acres on the boundary between Roxbury and Dorchester. By March of 1637, he owned three acres, two goads (?), and three rods near Dorchester, and two acres, one goad, and four rods in the Cow pasture. In 1640, Matthias moved to Windsor CT, and was granted land there. Before 1648, he moved to Wethersfield. In 1654, he made his final move, to Norwalk CT.

On 1 Jun 1654, Matthias appeared before a Particular Court (?) at Hartford, accused that he "had sold syder to Indians by which they was Drunke." He appeared in court at least six other times between 1651 and 1656, each time a plaintiff or defendent in suits involving sums from £1 to £18. Matthias also served as a member of the Grand Jury, and was a Juryman in Particular Court.

Matthias' will was dated 19 Oct 1669. He died in October or November of that year, and his estate was inventoried 31 Jan 1669.

Matthias and his descendants through 1785 were regularly chosen as 'Townsmen', "to act and agitate all such affairs and occasions as the orders of the courte authoriseth and that for the year ensuinge." [Alexander1907a,8]

Elizabeth's parents John and Hannah resided at New Haven CT. Hannah was John's third wife.

Elizabeth's only child from her first marriage, to William Maltby, was William. John Davenport's fourth child by his first marriage, to Martha Gould, was Sarah. Son William and daughter Sarah married each other. This makes John's and Elizabeth's sons, Abraham and James, half-brothers and half-brothers-in-law to both William and Sarah. A more startling statement is that Abraham and James are half-uncles to William and Sarah's children - on both sides!

4A.3 (2) James Mortimer HULSE 1834 - 1907

Birth Date: 6 Apr 1834. Birth Place: Middletown NY. Death Date: 7 Jan 1907. Death Place: Keats KS.

James settled in Wildcat Township, Riley County, in 1855. He came with 22 men to Pawnee, and his first job was hauling rock with oxen for the capitol building. [Riley1976a]

In the 1860 census, he was listed as a miller in the Lemeul Knapp household. At the time of the 1865 census, he was with the H W Martin household. [Riley1976a] Another source states that, "... and the James and Dewitt Hulse families arrived [in the creek valley] in 1865." [Slagg1968a,p138; a well-written history of Riley County KS]

James was a cook in the Civil War, for the Union Army. He never received a pension. [Hulse1980c]

The 1870 census shows James age 34, Louise age 18, Frederick age 1, and Mathew Wilder, a minister, living in the same household in Grant township. (James' age seems to be an error, because his birthyear is reliably known to be 1834.) The census shows James owning 5000 acres and having $500 in personal property. [Riley1870a]

By 1875, the census shows that James had moved to 1000 acres in Manhattan City, and his personal property totaling $650. It also shows that he was born in New York, but had come to Kansas from Pennsylvania. [Riley1875a]

James's family lived one mile east of Keats. Each year they planted more fruit trees, and had all kinds - apple, peach, cherry, etc. They sold and canned lots of fruit. They moved to Keats in 1905, James died in 1907, and the farm was sold in 1910. [Riley1976a]

At his death, James' estate was worth about $700. [Kansas1907a]

Family legend tells a tale that James' wife and Frederick's mother was Sari, a half-Navajo, whose father was full Navajo. Sari's family was taken to the reservation, but she was allowed to remain off the reservation because she was married to a white man. Sari's mother may have been a "captive" wife. Sari reputedly died in 1951, aged 116. [Hulse1980a]

His newspaper obituary described James as, "... one of the well known promiment men of the county ... a successful farmer ..." [Manhattan1907b] (The very same edition of the newspaper reported his son Frederick's election as Deacon of the Congregational Church.)

4A.3.6 (3) Mehitabel HULSE 1894 -

Birth Date: 23 Jan 1894.

Mehitabel was usually known as "Mettie".

For [Riley1976a], when she was over 80 years of age, Mettie recalled her experiences as a child around the turn of the century. For [Hulse1980b,c,d], personal letters to Mike Forster, she further recalled her life., now at age 86.

Mettie started school in a in 1899. The next year there were 55 students, ranging in age from 6 to 18, and including her brother Lloyd. She recalled the names and ages of all of the students, as well as the names of the general storekeeper, the blacksmiths, the doctors, the yeastmaker, the hardware storekeeper, the milkman, the railroad agent, the section house foremen, and the closest neighbors.

The druggist, Mr. James Beverage, also had the post office, the telephone office, sold some groceries, sold ice, and was in charge of the cheese factory. "Mrs. Murphy served meals, also took in roomers. ... Schultz Brothers from Manhattan used to bring fresh meat and bologna in the summer. Mr. Regney would come about every two weeks and bring coal oil (kerosene) for our lamps, also axle grease and oil.

"The Rock Island Line had [a] depot in Keats. ... There were six passenger trains daily, also two local freight trains, and an extra train in [the] evening to take live stock to Kansas City.

"We used to go to Manhattan maybe every two months. We would go in a wagon. ... It took two hours to go to town. ... My father [James] would buy five sacks [of] flour (100 pound sacks) and 100 pounds sugar. ... My mother [Louise] baked bread about every three days.

"On Saturday afternoons, they played baseball. Everone came to watch. ... On [the] 4th of July, they would have a picnic in Ayars Grove... People would make ice cream and we would have lemonade. That's [the] only time we used to have lemonade.

"At Christmas we would get oranges. They put up a cedar tree in church and everybody put presents on it. The had programs. The teacher gave [the] children apples, oranges, and popcorn balls in [a] sack."

In 1899, she, her brother Lloyd, and her parents visited Oklahoma in a covered wagon. They were gone a month, and she remembers that they had a good time.

After Murray died in 1939, Mettie worked for one woman for five years, for a woman doctor for seven, and in the Methodist home for another seven, for $72 per month plus room and board, until she retired in 1959. Then, she and her brother built a house, in which she lived from 1961 until 1978.

Mettie was a member of Eastern Star for 50 years, in Riley KS. On 3 Jan 1981, she was baptised and became a member of the United Methodist Church.

In 1981, after her 87th birthday, Mettie's letter commented, "... In summer, [I] watch the [Kansas City] Royals. Brett is some ball player."

5A.1 (1) John PECK 1165 - 1215

Birth Date: e 1165. Death Date: e 1215.

John, Esq. was of Belton, in Yorkshire. The Peck lineage resided in Belton through Richard, 10 generations after John. Nearly all of the male descendents in the lineage were Esq. [Peck1868a]

The people named Peck owe the origin of their name to their location or home. In medieval times, the name was "Pek", meaning "at the hilltop or peak." [Dusenbery1925a,5]

These Pecks were very frugal with their given names. For hundreds of years, the sons mentioned in this lineage were all named John, Richard, Robert, and Thomas. Anne, Catherine, Elizabeth, Joan, and Margaret were the most popular daughters' names.

Cushman1944a (Family history, 9 General)

Herbert Wright Cushman, Genealogy of Ethiel Cushman; Herbert Wright Cushman, Beverly Hills CA, Dec 1944

The source of the pedigree from Robert Cushman, the Pilgrim, to Ethiel Cushman was the 1855 "Cushman Genealogy" by Henry Wyles Cushman. The sources of the dates and places for the descendants of Ethiel are unknown. However, most of the events were within the living memory of family members at the time this volume was compiled.

This volume, given to Mike Forster by Paula Zetta (Walker) Baird in 1981, sparked Mike's Forster's interest in genealogy.

8 Introduction to the Addendum

In 2021, I decided to make an update to the Forster-Hulse Family History that I compiled in 1994 and printed in 1995. Many more resources, investigations and family trees by others are available online since that first edition.

The purposes of this Addendum are to extend generations further into the past, add details such as more exact dates, and correct errors in the 1995 edition.

Unlike in 1995, for this update, I did very little research of original documents (census records, birth certificates, contemporary histories, etc.) I relied on family trees researched by other on ancestry.com, geneanet.org, myheritage.com, wikipedia.com, and houseofnames.com. Most of the family trees I chose cite multiple resources such as original documents. That said, some family trees have conflicting information - I chose those that had the best matching dates and locations, and best matched my own original research from 1995. There are cases where dates do not align well, such as a child being born when the mother or father was much too young; these require further research.

Many of the entries in these references include images such as portraits, coats-of-arms, effigies, headstones, and others. Many of the portraits are charming in their style, and many of the coats-of-arms excellent examples of graphics arts impressively depicting strength and family history.

This Addendum used as starting points the major sections of the 1995 edition: 3A to 3M and 4A to 4D. I researched but did not find new information in ancestry.com for Lipkin (2C), Borewicz (2D), Sention (3J), Peck (5A), and Mathews (5B).

This edition might provide a starting point for another family member to continue to confirm and extend the ancestries and discover new and interesting notes about our historical ancestors.

9 Interesting Notes

9.1 A Few Highlights

It appears our ancestry includes a number of interesting historical figures:

- Kings or the equivalent - including Odin, Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, Henry I, Henry II.
- Saints - including Begga, Margaret of Scotland.
- Knights, governors, mayors, sheriffs, earls, barons, counts.
- Two Pilgrim passengers on the Mayflower (Isaac Allerton, Degory Priest).
- John Davenport, the founder of New Haven, CT and Yale University.

Being a descendant of a king is fun but not particularly special. There are estimates of the number of 20th century descendants of various kings and queens in our ancestry, including an estimate for William the Conqueror of 5 million.

Kary Amy, Betsy Crosby, Mike Forster and their descendants are eligible to join the Mayflower Society.

9.2 A Few Lexical Notes

- fitz = son of (father's given name)
- sson = son of (father's given name)
- dotter = daughter of (father's given name)
- clanricarde = clan Richard

9.3 Interesting Notes about Individual Persons and Lineages

The Pippinids were a Frankish aristocratic family from Austrasia. They supplanted the Merovignians as kings in 751, founding the Carolingian dynasty.

175 Odin, Frigge, and Thor
Odin (also known as Woden) and his wife Frigge were likely real historical figures, with mythologies added that has led to them being revered as gods. English names of some days of the week come from these figures: Woden for Wednesday, Frigge for Friday, and Thor, Odin's son by another wife Jord, for Thursday.

Sir Henry (b 1491) was the Groom of the Stool in the privy chamber of King Henry VIII, responsible for assisting the king in excretion and ablution (bathing). The physical intimacy of this role naturally led to the monarch entrusting the groom with many royal secrets. By the time of King Henry VII, the Groom of the Stool had become a powerful official involved with national fiscal policy.

Sir Henry was a close servant of the King, but also supported Queen Anne Boleyn's court faction. When the Queen fell out of favor, he and others were accused and found guilty of treason and adultery with the Queen, and beheaded in the Tower of London in 1536.

595 Isaac Allerton (3E)
https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/111385414/person/300180860630/facts

From the Mayflower Quarterly, 2020 Winter, p 51-58:

'Isaac Allerton was probably born at East Bergholt, Suffolk about 1587 and "belonged to the same recusant community as Mayflower passenger Elizabeth (Barker) Winslow." In 1655 he testified in New Amsterdam as being from Suffolk. Leslie Mahler presented the Court Minutes of the Blacksmiths of London that declare that in 1609, "Isaac Allerton, son of Bartholomew Allerton late of Ipswich, county Suffolk, tailor has bound himself apprentice by indenture to James Glyn citizen and blacksmith. " Mahler points out the Isaac-Bartholomew name connection as well as Bartholomew being a tailor points to a connection to this Isaac Allerton. Of interest is that Isaac Allerton's son Bartholomew returned to Suffolk county and settled there as a minster.'

'Isaac Allerton immigrated to Amsterdam and was made a freeman of Leiden, Holland on February 7, 1614; only he, Degory Priest and Governor William Bradford were accorded this honor. Allerton married Mary Norris of Newbury, England on November 4, 1611 in Leiden. In his list of Mayflower passengers Bradford includes "Mr. Isaac Allerton and Mary his wife, with three children, Bartholomew, Remember, and Mary. And a servant boy John Hooke." Allerton was the fifth signer of the Mayflower Compact on November 1 1, 1620.' (This article continues to provide a very thorough biography of Isaac Allerton.)

655 Benjamin Judd
Benjamin Judd (b 1671) lived to 93 years of age.

680 Ebenezer Steele
It appears that both Ebenezer Steele (b 1727) and his wife Sara Sage (b 1731) may have lived into their 90s.
https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/16970158/person/20330872318/facts

682 Sarah Steele (Steel)
The mother of Sarah Steele (b 1756) was not Jennet Barr as shown in the 19915 edition, but was Sarah Sage (b 1731). Jennet Barr was the mother of Sarah Steele's husband, Joseph Fenton.

687 William Fenton (3G)
William (b abt 1690) was married to a wife named Ann, Anne, or Anna, possibly nicknamed "Annie". It is unclear whether that was Ann Keith, Ann Withrow, or Anna Keith Alden. In contradiction, Anna Keith Alden is listed as the wife of Ebenezer Alden, great-grandson of John Alden of Mayflower and Plymouth, Massachusetts fame: future wife Priscilla told him, "Speak for yourself, John." (John Alden, Joseph Alden, Isaac Alden, Ebenezer Alden)

Sarah Steele's ancestry is still a subject of investigation and confirmation. At least three possible ancestry trees are possibilities; this 2021 update presents the most likely of these three.

In 1864, at age 60, Archer joined the Union military for the Civil War.

870 Frederick Raymond Hulse
Frederick Hulse (b 1868) lived to age 90.

870 Carrie Grace Johnson
Different family trees show at least 2 Carrie Johnsons (b 1876), age 4, in the 1880 census. One shows father John Millken Johnson born in Illinois, mother Margaret born in Missouri, and Cary G born in Kansas. Another shows father Hiram Willhoite Johnson born in Kansas, mother Frances born in Iowa, and Carrie born in Kansas. The 1900 census for Manhattan, Riley County, Kansas shows Carrie G as the wife of Fred Hulse, with Carrie's parents born in Illinois and Missouri.

So, our Carrie's father was John Milliken Johnson. The 1880 census entry for spells her name "Cary"; my supposition is that the census taker simply recorded the name without asking for the spelling from the parents.

Carrie died when a Pacific Electric Red Car hit the automobile when it hit the automobile she was in, in Long Beach, CA, on 14 Nov 1930. Here's an excerpt from a news article quoting her brother, Jesse R. Johnson, in a newspaper whose name includes "Mercury", on a Wednesday in December 1930:

"Carrie Grace Johnson was born in a two room log house on upper Cedar creek 53 years ago. … Now that she is gone from us it is so easy to recall the lovable self-sacrificing life she led. … Always she thought of others and strived to make them happy. … There was never a more democratic woman. She lived to defend and excuse those who had fallen behind in what she believed to be the unequal race of life. She knew and understood the strife and injustices incident to the change from an outgrown industrial system. … Detesting sham and hypocrisy, she spoke out boldly on all public questions. No nobler woman ever watered the desert of life with her love and tears, and a truer, more beautiful soul never returned to its maker." [Carrie was 54 at the time of her death.]

4A.3.1a.5 Elizabeth Irene Hulse (also 2A/spouse).
On 30 Oct 1930, Carrie wrote a letter to her daughter Margaret Louise Hulse, just two weeks before Carrie passed away in the Pacific Electric - automobile accident. The letter passed down to her daughter Theresa Thompson. The letter refers to the marriage of Carrie's daughter Elizabeth to William Forster:

"Yes, the elopement took place as per schedule only they didn't drive. E (Elizabeth) and Bill just went on the bus, at midnight from Los Angeles and came back the next afternoon all married and everything. They went to Yuma, Arizona. A car to go would cost so much so Hazel and Jessie didn't go.

And Hazel had a date to broadcast the day they were married. She played for a woman she had accompanied before who is trying to get on the radio. ...

E and Bill stayed in Los Angeles Friday night and moved into a dear cozy apartment Saturday afternoon in Wilmington. It is a regular doll house with everything. It's nice.

They are both working again. We saw them yesterday evening. The fellows over at the Union Oil where Bill works gave them a lovely automatic toaster and they were awfully proud.

Of course E is very happy and I should not feel sad and I don't. ... We are going to take some pictures of them when they get the time. E works all kinds of hours. I am worried about it but I hardly think she will continue there."

10 Family Trees Extensions and Corrections

10.1 Family Trees Fields

1 Ancestors of: Chronological listing of ancestors of the named subject.
Each lineage flows upwards from descendants to ancestors; i.e., earlier dates are higher in each section.

2 Location: Locations most relevant to that Father / Mother couple.
These summaries show only general locations (countries, England's counties, or US states). For more detailed locations, visit the individual records on ancestry.com or elsewhere.

For brevity of presentation, this Addendum removes "shire" from many English counties, and initial for US states:

England's Counties shortened	US States
Berk(shire)	CA California
Cheshire - not shortened	CT Connecticut
Devon(shire)	IL Illinois
Gloucester(shire)	KS Kansas
Hamp(shire)	MA Massachusetts
Hereford(shire)	MI Michigan
Lincoln(shire)	NC North Carolina
Nottingham(shire)	NY New York
Oxford(shire)	PA Pennsylvania
Shrop(shire)	RI Rhode Island
Warwick(shire)	VA Virginia
Wilt(shire)	WV West Virginia
Worcester(shire)
York(shire)

3 Dates
Birth: Date of birth
Death: Date of death
abt = about; bef = before; aft = after.
Dates showing only the year are likely all in the category of "about": estimates typically based on birth dates 20-30 years after a mother or before a child.

4 Gen: Generation
For the Forster section, this indicates the generation, starting with 1 for Mytische Voorounders Goten (Goths) sometime around 1 AD.

5 Lin(eage)
f = Father, m = Mother; the ancestry path thought the family tree.
b = Both father and mother, for the earliest listed ancestors in each line.
borders around individual names also indicate this path through the tree.

6 1995: Identifier in the 1995 edition for an individual, where applicable.

7 Parents - Father, Mother
Father: Father of the next generation.
Mother: Mother of the next generation.
(name) indicates an alternate spelling or alternate or additional name.
This list places the given name first, the family name second, and titles or positions last, such as sir, knight, lady, mayor, sheriff, deacon, etc.

8 Note: An index to items in the Interesting Notes section Numbers are spaced to allow new Notes entries without renumbering.

9 Br(anch)#: The entry number of a lineage branch off.
10 Ent(ry)#: The entry number for each Father / Mother combination.
Br# is a bi-directional link to an entry number for ancestors or descendants of the Father or Mother. These can be used to follow a lineage backwards or forwards in time.
